

Surface Styling Map

Arrange your dresser with intentional layers for limited space

Maximizing a small bedroom means every surface needs to work harder. This map helps you balance height and minimize visual clutter without overwhelming the room.

● Spacing & Proportions

1/2 to 2/3 width

Foundation mirror proportion to dresser

12+ inches

Empty clearance above leaves to ceiling

5 mm

Clear silicone dots add grip

1/3 height

Candle relative to leaning art piece

6-inch pot

Trailing plant counterweights the left side

3 or 5 items

Groupings for your daily essentials

5-inch square

Dedicated empty drop zone for keys

4+ inches

Empty wood breathing room at edges

*Turn spines to wall
Stack two linen-bound books under a small candle with spines facing the wall to expose neutral, textured paper edges and instantly reduce visual clutter.*

● Anchor Vase Sizing

Find your row: Tall anchor branch

Tall anchor branch	Your pick	Why
24 inches	3 lbs, 3-in opening	Counterweights top-heavy greenery
36 inches	5 lbs, 4-in opening	Counterweights top-heavy greenery
48 inches	8 lbs, 5-in opening	Counterweights top-heavy greenery

● Before You Style

- ☐ Verify your catch-all tray is non-porous sealed marble or ceramic.
- ☐ Check mirror backing to place protective top corner bumpers.
- ☐ Ensure trailing plant stays inside its original plastic nursery pot.
- ☐ Confirm standard 6-drawer dresser size for this optimal spacing map.

● Build Your Layers

- ☐ Start with a tall anchor branch on the left side.
- ☐ Center foundational arched or round mirror flush against the wall.
- ☐ Lean smaller framed art against mirror using silicone grips.
- ☐ Use a lipped tray that saves wood from liquid damage.
- ☐ Introduce woven linen or raw canvas to soften reflective materials.
- ☐ Tuck a small marble bowl next to your book stack.
- ☐ Counterweight right side with a watertight decorative stone planter.
- ☐ Hide smart speaker cords behind art using adhesive clips.

● Styling Notes

Step back and enjoy your beautifully balanced, clutter-free bedroom retreat!