Spot Hidden Undertones

Hold a pure white sheet of paper next to your swatch to reveal hidden pink, yellow, or ash undertones before committing to a gallon.

● Match Your Room Exposure

Find your row: Window direction

Window direction	Your pick	Why
North-facing	Strong yellow or beige	Warms cool, bluish indirect light
South-facing	Subtle pink or neutral	Balances warm, intense direct light
East-facing	Balanced cream	Adapts to bright and dark shifts
West-facing	Earthy beige or sand	Grounds shadowy mornings, warm evenings

● The Cozy Details

- ☐ Washed linen duvet for a relaxed, undone foundation.
- ☐ Raw oak grounding to anchor the airy space.
- ☐ Chunky wool rug over a solid felt pad.
- ☐ Brass wall sconces to amplify the golden reflections.
- ☐ Tonal pillows in beige, cream, and off-white.

● In-Room Checks & Prep

- Paint a 12x12-inch test square on two opposing walls.
- Observe the paint color at 8 AM and 8 PM.
- Wash the duvet in cold water and tumble dry low.
- Verify your dimmer switch is within reach of the pillows.

● Room Notes & Measurements

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
